Cruisetour Land Packages Guide www.RoyalCaribbean.com

Why not reach your potential... then dare to go beyond?

WHY SELL CRUISETOURS?

In today's market, having a competitive edge is crucial to success. With the right tools and a little know-how, you can easily boost your profits. For instance, did you know you could increase your commissions by as much as 50% just for booking your clients on a Royal Caribbean cruisetour land package? A cruisetour land package is full of opportunity, for both you and your clients. They'll get to explore even more exciting destinations—places they could never reach on a cruise alone. And you get to enjoy higher earnings by sending them on a truly unforgettable land and sea adventure. Inside this kit, you'll find everything you need to start selling cruisetour land packages...and go way beyond your potential.

Knowledge is Sales Power

Provide your clients with more vacation options.

- Our cruisetour land packages are offered worldwide with 22 destinations and 29 packages for your clients to choose from.

Earn additional GAP points.

- In addition to GAP points offered on select sailings, you'll also earn three extra GAP points on your cruisetour land package bookings.

Cruisetour guests book sooner.

- Most clients that buy cruisetour land packages tend to reserve 22 to 50 weeks before sailing. Once they book, they are less likely to cancel, so you can rest assured knowing you'll most likely earn commission on every booking.

The higher the revenue, the bigger the payout.

- Cruisetour bookings typically allow you to double your revenue and your commission as opposed to what you might earn on a cruise-only booking.

Appeal to bigger spenders.

- Most clients that book cruisetour land packages are driven by value—getting the most vacation for their money. They tend to spend 30% more on fares. Also, 70% of them book balconies and suites, giving you even greater commissions.

THE KIND OF ADVENTURE WHERE ANYTHING IS POSSIBLE

Send your clients on a journey like no other, where all conventions of travel—as they know it—have been cast away. On a Royal Caribbean cruisetour land package, they'll visit some of the most fascinating places on earth, in absolute comfort and with the utmost level of service and personal attention. One moment, your clients will be sailing onboard one of the most imaginative ships at sea. The next, they'll be riding in a luxurious glass-domed traincar, venturing into the depths of the Alaskan wilderness. Or taking the scenic route through fields of wildflowers and quaint European villages. With Royal Caribbean, the journey is just as thrilling as the destination. Simply no other vacation compares.

HOW TO MARKET AND SELL TO A SPECIFIC CLIENTELE

The Romantic Getaway

What can be more romantic than traveling to your dream destination with the one you love? Cruisetours are also an ideal honeymoon option for newlyweds that want the adventure of an exotic vacation without having to lift a finger. After months of wedding planning, they may welcome letting someone else handle all the details. And with just the right amount of free time, they can see many destinations but still relax and unwind.

- Highlight some of the more romantic destinations, like Italy or Paris, or the more romantic activities, like having a sunset dinner in the desert of Dubai.
- Focus on service and our high staff to guest ratio.

The Cultural Enrichment Journey

Because of the unique destinations, cruisetour land packages have always appealed to cultural interest groups. What better way to get fully immersed into a new culture? Plus, our knowledgeable Adventure Specialists can provide interesting commentary on each place visited.

- Explain to your clients how much more they will see on a cruisetour land package that combines different port destinations and an in-depth land experience.
- Highlight activities that are most relevant to the group. For example, nature enthusiasts would find the Denali National Park particularly interesting.

The Family Vacation

Whether they're traveling with the kids for that annual vacation, or taking the grandparents back to the "old country", a cruisetour is a wonderful option for families. Our high level of comfort and service will be appreciated by all members of the group. And because everything is so well organized, your clients won't have to worry about planning each day. They can just focus on spending quality time with their relatives.

- Focus on the benefit of traveling together as a group for most of the excursions, while still having the flexibility to do different things during their free time.
- Convenience is key, particularly for those traveling with children or grandparents. Our centrally located hotels ensure that the family will always have relatively close access to restaurants, transportation and city sights, which make it convenient for all to enjoy their leisure time.

The Educational Opportunity

Ever wondered what teachers did on their summer vacation? Many of them take advantage of the time off to travel. Cruisetour land packages give teachers the chance to go back to school equipped with new insight and exciting new facts to share with their students.

- Mention how an Adventure Specialist is a cultural expert, historian, guide and concierge all in one.
- Let your clients know how a cruisetour land package provides a different perspective, combining history and culture with local cuisine and customs. They can get a more authentic experience in Dubai, or truly immerse themselves into the European way of life.

ALL IT TAKES IS JUST A MINUTE OF YOUR TIME TO LEARN EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT SELLING CRUISETOUR LAND PACKAGES. CHECK OUT OUR HELPFUL TIPS BELOW.

Identify your target market.

In general, clients that book cruisetour land packages are experienced, adventurous travelers seeking the most vacation for their money. While price is a factor, value tends to weigh more heavily on their final decision. Cruisetour land packages offer an excellent value in the sense that your clients can see many more destinations within the same vacation. It's a wonderful opportunity to explore places they would otherwise miss on a cruise vacation alone. And since it's all part of the same planning process, the entire experience is completely seamless, from start to finish.

Put it into perspective.

Let's be realistic. Who knows when they'll get to visit Australia again? Even if your clients are frequent cruisers, most likely they'll want to try a new destination next year. And as long as they're traveling halfway across the world, they might as well get the full experience—on the coast, out at sea, and inland.

Weigh all of their options.

Taking a cruisetour land package is much more convenient and affordable than booking the same land tour through a contemporary land tour operator. Use our comparison charts to show the value of a cruisetour land package on a per-day basis. Let them know about the advantages of combining both the land portion and the cruise into one trip. And explain to your clients the added benefit of continuity—having the same Adventure Specialist throughout the land portion and traveling with the same group. Just think, they won't have to worry about any of the details because everything will be handled for them.

Check out the competition.

If your clients are set on taking a cruisetour, explain to them why Royal Caribbean is the best choice. Details such as centrally located hotels, trains that accommodate smaller groups, higher staff-to-passenger ratios, and even shorter motorcoach rides are all factors that can make a difference. Our cruisetour land packages provide the utmost level of service and comfort to each and every one of our guests.

Bring it up sooner than later.

As soon as your client expresses interest in a destination served by cruisetours, you should already be factoring it into the plans. A cruisetour will be better received if it is presented as part of the trip planning process...not as an afterthought.
