SAILINGS TO THE CARIBBEAN

Looking at the Caribbean as a whole the region, outside of four ports we had on our itineraries, is in condition to provide the same level of Azamara Destination Immersion experience our mutual guests are accustomed to. However, the damage sustained in these four ports warrant a temporary substitution during November and December. We are replacing Philipsburg, St. Maarten; Tortola and Virgin Gorda British Virgin Islands; and Roseau, Dominica on Azamara Quest sailings until these islands have fully recovered. Please note, December voyages that start and end in San Juan will not be adjusted, but our crossing in November will replace San Juan with Bermuda. We do not anticipate any other itinerary changes at this time.

Below is a break-down of itinerary changes:

Our guests' and crews' safety is our number one priority, and our team has been working diligently with port agents to ensure that we'll be able to provide guests with the destination immersion experience expected on every voyage.

We do not anticipate any other further itinerary changes at this time; however, we will continue to monitor recovery efforts closely with local port officials.

We appreciate your ongoing patience and look forward to providing your clients with an unforgettable Caribbean vacation.

SAILINGS TO CUBA

We are aware the U.S. State Department has published a travel warning for Cuba. The warning was issued due to events that occurred in U.S. diplomatic residences and hotels frequented by U.S. citizens. These events do not pose a risk to cruise passengers sailing. In fact, our sister brand is currently sailing to Cuba and their guests are very satisfied with their experience. In addition, Azamara guests explore Havana on tours always escorted by local tour operators and ship personnel and do not visit hotels.

We will continue sailing to Cuba in 2017 and 2018 as planned and will be sure to keep you updated should there be additional developments.

STAY longer. EXPERIENCE more.
