Reserved Passages program enrollment provides guests with an onboard credit for use on a future cruise. To enroll in the Reserved Passages Program, guest must book a stateroom for a future Celebrity cruise while onboard a Celebrity cruise and pay $100 per person deposit for each future cruise sailing; an additional deposit applies to suite categories. Program excludes Celebrity Xpedition sailings. Onboard credit amount ranges from $50-$500 USD per stateroom and is determined at time of booking based on length of sailing (minimum 4 night sailing) and category of stateroom/suite; see insert for onboard credit amounts. Maximum one onboard credit per stateroom to be applied to the future cruise. Program applies to price programs that begin with FST, LOY, TR, SRS, GRPX. Program excludes all other price programs and discounted rates, including, but not limited to, Exciting Deals, Category specials, Category guarantee rates, Reduced Air, Interline, Travelzoo, resident, travel agent, and employee rates. Single occupancy guests and cruise portion of Cruise tours are eligible for Program. Onboard credit has no cash value, not redeemable for cash and will expire if not used by 10:00 PM on the final night of the cruise. Program is combinable with one additional offer of your choice available up to the final payment due date. Program applicable to new individual Celebrity Cruise bookings only made on or after August 1, 2013. Reservation may be transferred into non-contracted groups. Individual enrollment may be converted and applied to a group booking. Program terms, deposit amounts and changes and cancellation terms vary by country. For U.S. and Canadian guests: Reserved Passages reservations may be cancelled or changed up to 90 days prior to Holiday sailings and 75 days for all other sailings; guests of other countries should contact the Future Cruise Sales team for country specific information. Your Reserved Passages booking will be attributed to the travel partner associated with your current cruise booking. However, if you wish to have your booking reflect an alternative arrangement, please indicate this signing the appropriate waiver form at time of booking.
