

Egypt – Itinerary Changes

March 18, 2011

Royal Caribbean International, Celebrity Cruises and Azamara Club Cruises have been closely monitoring the situation in Egypt. The safety and security of our guests and crew members is always foremost in our minds. Due to the uncertainty in Egypt, and in an abundance of caution, we have decided to cancel additional port calls to Egypt for Royal Caribbean International through November.

The cost of any shore excursions in a cancelled port, which were purchased through Royal Caribbean International, will be refunded to the form of payment used. Guests who booked shore excursions whose call date has changed, through Royal Caribbean International, will have those reservations transferred to the new day of the port call. Our shore excursion staff onboard can assist guests regarding activities in any new port of call.

We will continue to closely monitor the changing situation in Egypt and will contact guests or their travel agents should we make any additional modifications to upcoming itineraries.
